New Steamer To Operate On Stikine

There is expected in Wrangell by tomorrow night the new stern-wheeler steamer "Tyconda" which will be operated this season on the Stikine River between here and Telegraph Creek. The Tyconda is owned by Capt. J. W. Mangan and Capt. R. B. Holbrook who recently purchased the vessel from the Lawrence Brothers of Tacoma for $14,500 and took her to Seattle where she was rebuilt and improved at the yards of Ward and Sons.

Holbrook and Mangan the owners have incorporated the company as the H. and M. Transportation Company. Both the men are well known Puget Sound masters. Capt. Holbrook for some time has been master of the steamer Potlatch on the Hood Canal Run, and he was at one time master of the "State of Washington."

Capt. Mangan was formerly Pilot on the H. B. Kennedy of the Navy Yard Route and last summer was master of the steamship Olympian of the Seattle-Olympia run.

The Tyconda is expected to be able to get away on her first trip up the river about the 15th of the month and will continue in operation until the close of the season. In construction and accommodations she is ideally fitted or the Wrangell-Stikine run having accommodations for eighty passengers and a cargo capacity of 55 tons. Her dimensions are: length, 105 feet; beam 22 feet, and depth four feet eight inches. With a forty ton cargo she will draw only three feet of water.

Capt. Holbrook, who is president of the company, will act as master of the steamer, and Capt. Mangan will serve as general manager of the company.

Capt. Mangan arrived up on the Dolphin and is making the preliminary arrangements for the company waiting the arrival of the vessel. The new service means a big thing to Wrangell as the new line will make this their home port and the new company is assured the hearty cooperative of every business house in the city.

Susie Brockman, a native woman from Klawock, was adjudged insane by a jury in Commissioner Thomas' yesterday morning. The woman was brought over from Klawock by Government school teacher Hibbs, and according to his testimony the woman is getting old and has no one to look after her and that at times she wanders away and is gone for days. She will be sent south in a few days to the Morningside asylum in Ore.

Judge Jennings' Instructions For Holding Election

The time is approaching when licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors for the year beginning July 1, 1915, and ending July 1, 1916, will either be granted or refused, and I herewith explain the course which is to be pursued this year.

THE LAW

The law provides that no license for the sale of intoxicating liquor shall be granted unless it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court that a majority of the white male and female (full) citizens, over the age of 21 years, residing at the place where liquor is to be sold or within two miles thereof, have, IN GOOD FAITH, consented to such sale. Residence for any length of time is sufficient. The law also provides that the burden is upon the applicant for a license to show to the satisfaction of the Court that a majority of said people have consented. This means nothing less than that the persons desiring licenses must, at their own expense, show to the Court the necessary facts.

Last year the method pursued was as follows: Persons were appointed to take the census, and at the time of taking the names, the persons enumerated were then and there asked whether or not they consented, and the fact of their consent or non-consent was noted in the enumerator's book. As the book showed that a majority as required by law had consented, licenses were issued.

The claim, however, has been made to the Court by many persons in communications, both oral and written, that the method pursued last year does not afford a true test, because, as was alleged, many persons were induced by business and other considerations to say that they were in favor of the sale of liquor, when, in truth and in fact, they were opposed to such sale. The representation has been made also that many persons have said, according to the book, that they were opposed to the sale of liquor when, in truth and in fact, they were not so opposed, but had been induced by social, family and other considerations to say that they were opposed.

Strong statements have been made that if some way could be adopted by which a citizen would have an opportunity to express his real preference in the matter without it being a matter of publicity, none who were really for "dry" would be counted as for "wet", and none who were really for "wet" would be counted as for "dry"; and the Court has been asked to adopt some method by which those who desired COULD give expression to their real wishes without publicity. The Court thinks such request is reasonable and proper, especially in view of the provision of the Statute that the consent must be IN GOOD FAITH, for no one could question the good faith of a secret expression of desire.

CENSUS

But how is the Court to ascertain what is the real wish, that is, the GOOD FAITH wish of a majority of the qualified persons?

The Court cannot know what is a majority of the whole number of persons unless it knows what is the whole number under consideration, and in order to ascertain what is the whole number of qualified persons the Court enumerators have been appointed to take a census of all such persons.

For that purpose the enumerators shall provide themselves with a book, or books, properly indexed, in which shall be entered (alphabetically) the information desired. This census will be completed at the earliest possible moment, and when completed, the census book is to be deposited with the U. S. Commissioner at Wrangell and shall be open for public inspection, and anyone who desires may take a copy.

The census enumerators are not to ask whether a citizen is or is not in favor of liquor being sold—they are only to take the name, residence and occupation of every person found to be qualified.

Vessels Here To Start Wire-Drag Survey

The vessels chartered by the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey to make a wire-drag survey, arrived here the first of the week. The survey party is under the command of H. Leyboldt, who is taking the place of Capt. Colbet who was taken sick on the way up and was taken to the hospital in Ketchikan. There are three vessels in the fleet, the King and Winge, the Josephine and the Equator. The vessels will operate this summer using Wrangell as a base, and will make a wire drag survey for hidden reefs and rocks in the waters from Snow Pass down to opposite Shakan. This is the start of a great work for the betterment of conditions and making the waters safer for navigation. Other officers of the service here are R. W. Henly, L. B. Dyke and Chas. Shaw.

A very regrettable affair this week is the calling away of surveyor Warner and his crew to attend to some government work in the vicinity of Seward. There is only a matter of a couple of weeks work yet on the townsite survey and it is regrettable that it could not be finished before he was taken away. The Council are making an effort to get Mr. Warner sent back here as soon as possible.

Looks Like A Base Ball Game

From the looks of the action of the town council last night it is practically assured that Wrangell is going to have a base ball park and that we will be able to play the national game before the season is over. At a meeting last night the council set aside a section of town property in the eastern part of the town back of the dairy ranch, to be used as a town recreation park, and Mr. William Lewis and Paul F. Stanhope were given permission to go ahead and build a ball diamond on the property if ways and means can be found to do it, and from the way the public spirited citizens are taking hold of the idea they are going to be able to carry it through.

If You Vote "Dry" We Are Liable To Go Thirsty

"If the town should be voted dry it would sure cause a hardship on every property holder, because if it is there will be no money to finish the dam and then Wrangell is liable to be out of water and with no beer, what would we have to drink? Let wait until the dam is finished before we vote 'er dry" Is the way one Wrangellite expressed his view of the coming election on the liquor question. And there is more truth than poetry in the statement at that, The city council has spent several thousand dollars on the new dam, some of which is not yet paid, and there is several thousand dollars to be spent yet before Wrangell will have a water system that has no danger of going dry if it does not rain every few days, and the money to carry on this improvement will largely come from the revenue from the liquor licenses. If we vote our income away we are going to have to dig pretty deep before can pay off our indebtedness.

The Burglar's Jimmy.
Why does the burglar call the tool with which he opens windows and doors a "jimmy"? No one seems to be sure. Perhaps it is merely a pet name. The French burglar calls his jimmy "Frere Jacques," which is first cousin to "Jimmy."

Its Advantages.
Scene—Train stopping at small station. Irritable Old Gentleman—What on earth do they stop at a station like this for? Objectionable Passenger (alighting)—To allow me to get out. Irritable Old Gentleman—Ah! I see it has its advantages then.

English Place Names.
England can boast that no other country possesses so many Scriptural place names as it does. The name Jericho occurs six times on the ordinance maps, Paradise five times and Nineveh, Mount Zion, Mount Ararat and Mount Ephraim three times each. In Bedfordshire there is a Calvary wood and in Dorsetshire a Jordan hill.

Quick Decision.
Farmer (to one of his laborers, who had come home after his first training in the militia)—Which would you rather be, a soldier or a farm hand, Paddy? Pat—A soldier, of course. Farmer—And why so, Paddy? Pat—Well, you see, you'd be a long time working for a farmer before he'd ten you to stand at ease—London 14-Bits.

Making Him Comfortable.
A drummer put up for the night in an out of the way boarding house. His room was under the roof. In the middle of the night, awakening from a dream that he was being drowned he found a terrific thunderstorm in progress and the rain streaming in on him through a leak.

"Landlady! Landlady!" he yelled.

And in reply to his yells the old landlady staggered upstairs and into the room with a big washtub. She plumped the washtub down on top of the drummer, who gave a grunt of surprise and pain, and then she said as she turned to depart:

"There, son; now yer all right, an' jist as soon as the tub fills up yell ag'in, an' I'll have another empty one ready for ye."

The Joker.
In the station restaurant the ham sandwiches were piled high upon the end of the counter when the 11:30 pulled in. The passengers had ten minutes to get a lunch, and the short, fat man realized this as he rushed in and called for a sandwich. The waiter

Power of Signal Lights.
In tests of oil lamps as weather signals at night, reported by G. Ishida from the Japanese meteorological station at Hamada, it has been found that the light of flat wicks is much brighter at a distance than that of round wicks and that the range of red lights is about double that of green. The latter became practically invisible at two miles, while red lights were still bright at three miles.

Printing Point Does Not Bob Up and Down

In an L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter the point on the paper which is to receive the type impression is stationary at the instant the type hits. The carriage does not bob up and down when the shift is made to write capitals.

Why?
Because the type is shifted—not the carriage.

The only movement of the carriage is back and forth on its closely adjusted ball bearing runways—and this does not take place while the print is being made. There is no lifting of the carriage.

This is one reason why L. C. Smith & Bros. type-writing is free from blurs and every letter in the right place.

Winifred Makes Fast Time

The river boat Winifred arrived down from her first trip to Telegraph last Wednesday afternoon. The Winifred established a record for herself this trip by making the fastest trip up the river ever made by a gasoline boat, making the trip up from Wrangell to Telegraph in 34 hours running time.

The new engine placed in the Winifred gives her double her former power and they are expecting to make better time the next trip than on the last one.

The boat crew reports that things at Telegraph were in a bad way when the Winifred arrived as they were practically out of sugar, flour, tobacco and several other items, to say nothing of the shortage on booze.

Notice Of Election

Pursuant to an Order of the Hon. Robert W. Jennings, Judge of U. S. District Court, District of Alaska, First Division I have taken a census and prepared a list of the male and female citizens over the age of 21 years of the town of Wrangell and residing within two miles thereof who are qualified to vote at an election to be held on May 24th 1915 in said town of Wrangell, on the question as to whether or not a majority of said citizens and residents consent to the sale of liquor within said town. The census have been taken by two reliable enumerators and the census book is now in my possession at my office, subject to inspection or correction by any one up to the day of election. In case any persons having the necessary qualifications to vote at said election have been overlooked in the taking of the census, or may have been absent at the time of taking the census, they may deposit their vote with me on or before the day of said election in a sealed envelope to be counted as per instructions of the Judge of the U. S. Dist. Court.

Said election will be held in the town hall of the town of Wrangell between the hours of 9 A. M. and 7 P. M. on the 24th day of May 1915.

Instructions to voters: To vote for licensing the sale of liquors write the word "Wet" on your ballot; To vote against licensing the sale of liquors write the word "Dry" on your ballot.

Wm. G. Thomas.

U. S. Commissioner, Wrangell Alaska, May, 12, 1915.

The Scrap Book

Ragamuffin. "Ragamuffin," says Dr. Johnson, "is from 'rag' and I know not what else." According to Dr. Brewer, the word means a ragged "muff" or "muffin" (a spiritless fellow). But the original Ragamuffin seems to have been a demon in certain old mystery plays, whose name was probably just high sounding nonsense. It is curious, however, that "the ragman" is an old name for the devil.

Korean Etiquette. When a Korean meets his wife on the street he must by custom ignore her presence and pass her by as if she were a stranger.

Holland's Caraway Seed. Caraway seed is a staple crop in Holland. The number of acres devoted to this fragrant seed is 20,000. The yield of baled caraway is about a ton and a half to the acre. Most of the seeds are worked up into oil by distillation.

Agujardi's Voice. The record soprano voice was Lucrezia Agujardi's. This lady, who died in 1783, could easily strike C in altissimo.

Chinese Pirates. As long ago as the thirteenth century the island of Hongkong was a practical stronghold, and for centuries the Chinese government was unable to drive the sea robbers out. All craft passing what is now Hongkong harbor were compelled to pay tribute. The higher elevations of the island served as lookout stations, and no boat that approached was permitted to leave until it had paid toll.

Judge Jennings's Election Instructions

The persons who intend to apply for a license must bear the expense of taking this census, and the persons appointed must make arrangements with those who intend to be applicants as to their compensation, as the Court has no funds at its disposal for such purpose.

VOTING

Having ascertained in the manner aforesaid the total number of qualified persons, the next thing is to ascertain how many of them do, IN GOOD FAITH, consent.

For the purpose of ascertaining this (as nearly as possible) the U. S. Commissioner will, on May 24th, be at his office in Wrangell at all times between the hours of 9 A. M. and 7 P. M. and will then and there receive and place IN A BALLOT BOX provided for that purpose, the ballots of all the persons offering to vote on the question; PROVIDED the name of the person is in the census book and the person is not challenged.

If any person offers to vote whose name is not in the book, the ballot will nevertheless be received if the person swears that he (or she) possesses the qualifications aforesaid. In such case, however, the name, residence and occupation of the person shall be taken and his (or her) ballot shall be placed NOT IN THE BALLOT BOX, but must, by him (or her) be placed in a separate envelope which shall be sealed and marked with his (or her) name and word "Omitted"; said envelope is to be then and there handed to the Commissioner and is not to be opened except by an order of the Court and in its presence, and not then unless it be necessary so to do in order to decide a contest.

If any person offering to vote is challenged as not possessing the qualifications required by law, as aforesaid, the ballot shall nevertheless be received if the person swears that he possesses the qualifications required. In such cases the name, residence and occupation of the person shall be taken, but his (or her) ballot shall be placed NOT IN THE BALLOT BOX, but must, by him (or her), be placed in a separate envelope, which envelope shall be sealed and marked with his (or her) name and the word "Challenged"; and said envelope is to be then and there handed to the Commissioner and is not to be opened except by an order of the Court and in its presence, and not then unless it be necessary so to do in order to decide a contest.

The method of voting is as follows: Those who consent to the sale of liquor in Wrangell during the year from July 1, 1915, to July 1, 1916, will write the word "Wet" on the ballot; those who are not in favor of liquor being sold in Wrangell during said year will write "Dry" on the ballot.

As each vote is received, if the name of the person voting is in the census book the name shall be checked, and if the name is not in the census book a separate notation shall be made thereof.

COUNTING

When all have voted who offer to vote, the U. S. Commissioner shall proceed, publicly, to count those ballots only WHICH ARE IN THE BALLOT BOX, and he shall certify the results, and shall forward to the Clerk of the Court the census books and all the envelopes containing ballots.

If it appears from the counting of the ballots in the ballot box that a majority of all the qualified persons have voted "Wet" the result will be considered as final, unless those opposed to the granting of licenses show that there has been some fraud or unfairness affecting the result. A reasonable opportunity will be afforded to make this showing.

If it appears from the counting of the ballots in the ballot box that a majority of all the qualified persons have voted "Dry" the results will be considered as final, unless the person desiring a license shows that there has been some fraud or unfairness affecting the result. A reasonable opportunity will be afforded to make this showing.
If it appears from the counting of the ballots in the ballot box the neither side has a majority of all the qualified persons, then the Court will determine from evidence produced at a full hearing, which, if any, of the votes in the envelopes are entitled to be counted, and will count them accordingly.

If, on counting all the qualified votes cast and considering the number of qualified persons who did not vote, it should appear that the number of votes cast on either side might be materially affected by counting the number of qualified persons who did not vote, then some equitable means will be adopted to ascertain whether or not those qualified persons who did not vote, do or do not consent to the sale of liquor, and effect will be given accordingly. It is for that purpose, and also to give the liquor dealers an opportunity to adjust their business if the town should go "dry" that the vote is to be taken thus clearly.

I cannot refrain from saying that there will be no innocent or reasonable misinterpretation of what I have said if you will bear in mind two things—

1. The law REQUIRES that the person desiring the license shall show to the satisfaction of the Court that a majority of the qualified persons (the law does not say qualified voters) have, in good faith, consented. Therefore it is up to you to show this, and without such showing, the Court is powerless to grant a license.

2. The method adopted is designed primarily to afford persons an opportunity to express their wishes without publicity—that is, that the GOOD FAITH wishes of as many as possible may be ascertained. For want of a more concise name, the method pointed out is spoken of as "Voting"—but this is not strictly an election—it is only a method to allow a secret expression of the consent or non-consent. The result of the method MAY, however, be final because enough people may vote to determine the question. If only a small proportion of qualified persons express their preference, the result will not afford a fair basis of test. It is therefore to the interests of both sides to see that as large a number as possible cast their votes, because if either side has IN THE BALLOT BOX a majority of ALL QUALIFIED PERSONS, there will be no call for any further effort to determine the mooted question of consent or nonconsent.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

No. 1263-A
IN ADMIRALTY
WARRANT OF ARREST
In The United States District Court For The District Of Alaska, Division Number One, At Juneau.
CHARLES ANDERSON,
Libellant,
vs,
AN UNKNOWN GASOLENE LAUNCH, believed to be the gasolene launch "RICHMOND" her tackle, apparel, furniture, engines, machinery and equipment.
Respondent.

The President Of The United States Of America, To The United States Marshal For The District Of Alaska, First Division, Or Any Deputy, GREETING:

You are hereby commanded, in the name and by the authority of the United States, forthwith to seize, arrest and attach the unknown gasolene launch, believed to be the gasolene launch "Richmond", whose master is unknown, together with all the singular her tackle, apparel, furniture, engines, machinery, and equipment, as the same now are, and the same to safely keep, to abide the final order and decree of this Court, in a certain plea, civil and maritime, herein prosecuted against said gasolene launch, her tackle, apparel, furniture, engines, machinery and equipment, by Charles Anderson, Libellant in causes of contract of services, repair and towage, and of salvage.

And you are further commanded in the name and by the authority aforesaid, to cite and admonish generally, all persons herein concerned, that they may be and appear before me, at the regular February, 1915, term of this Court or such other term as may be then in session, to be holden at the room of the District Court of the United States in the City of Juneau, District of Alaska, on the first Thursday following the expiration of thirty days from the date hereof, which said Thursday will be May 28, 1915, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, then and there to show cause, if any they have, why the said gasolene launch, her tackle, apparel, furniture, engines, machinery and equipment, should not be condemned for the payment of said services, repair, towage, and salvage, to-wit: Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, and costs.

And you are further commanded in the name and by the authority aforesaid, to give due notice of the arrest of said gasolene launch, her tackle, apparel, furniture, engines, machinery and equipment, by publishing the same in the Wrangell Sentinel, a news paper published near the place of seizure for a period of not less than fourteen days, and by posting notices thereof as required by law.

And have you then, or said date above mentioned, there this writ.
WITNESS, the Honorable Robert W. Jennings, Judge of the United District Court, for the District of Alaska, Division Number One, at Juneau, this the 23rd
